1. If a player is playing in a live game when registration starts he/she will get first chance to sign up for the tournament.
2. No refunds will be granted after the collections of fees have been transferred to the cage (unless approved by GCH management)
3. Must have a minimum of 3 players to start the tournament.
4. Players are responsible for protecting their hand.
5. Must have a valid ID and a GT Rewards Member to participate.
6. Any player behaving in a disruptive manner may, at the discretion of management, be disqualified.
7. Players will draw for seat assignment or electronically.
8. Players must have all chips in full view of all players at all times.
9. Once the tournament is down to one table, players may request an adjustment to the prize pool. Any adjustment, also known as an "Agreement," "Chop," "Deal" or "Pay the Bubble" must involve the poker supervisor and must be unanimous among the players. Any discussion of tax avoidance will immediately eliminate an adjustment. No player will be permitted to accept a prize lower than the amount the next player eliminated would have received if no agreement had been made. If there is an agreement, all paperwork will be updated and each player will sign for the agreed upon amounts.
